

They gave me a parade today

They gave me a parade today
It has to be, I'm sure
They must've known how brave I was
When I kicked down that closet door

Yes, they gave me a parade today
As anyone can see
So I'm shedding off the skin of fear
It's time that I be me

Through hate and aimless anger
I know I will survive
Like those who came before us
And from the ash we'll rise

Oh they gave me a parade today
Like no one's seen before
I'll join them marching in the street

I'm not hiding anymore
